2008 Big Band/Swing Group of the Year - Washington Area Music (Wammie) Awards

What do you get when you unite the award-winning members of the Billy Coulter Band, Junkyard Saints, Alexandria Klezmet and Western Bop to play a lively mix of post-war American music? The Natty BeauX! (pronounced Nat-tee Bohs) They're a fun-lovin', finger-snappin', hoppin' and boppin' combo playing Swingin' Jump-Blues and Rockabilly.

You just can't sit still when the boys play toe-tappin' numbers from Louis Prima, Ray Charles, Louis Jordan, Bobby Darin, Elvis, Gene Vincent, Nat King Cole, Jerry Lee Lewis and others. They've been called "The Rolling Stones of Swing" by their dance-crazed fans. This is good-time music performed by enthusiastic, energetic players that is sure to add excitement to any event!

The Natty BeauX perform at festivals, swing dances, nightclubs and other venues around the Washington-Baltimore area. They are available for all sorts of events including weddings, corporate functions, or just about any kind of party you're having....

The Natty BeauX features the talents of (l-r): Tommy Derr (guitar), Brian Simms (keyboards/vocals), Billy Coulter (vocals), Louie Newmyer (bass), Seth Kibel (sax) and Andy Hamburger (drums).
